The Australian Consortium for In-Country Indonesian Studies known as ACICIS (pronounced “ah-chee-chis” as an Indonesian would) has been opening doors to tertiary institutions throughout Indonesia since 1994, offering a range of study options and in-country support to help students gain invaluable first-hand experience of one of the richest and most diverse countries in the world.

ACICIS gratefully acknowledges the financial and in-kind support received from the Australian Commonwealth Department of Education and Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade through the New Colombo Plan Mobility Program. © Photograph by James Walsh.
