Before applying, please consider the following:

- ✓ Bachelor of Environment and Society students can receive credit for three of ACICIS' virtual internship programs:
    - Development Studies Professional Practicum
    - Agriculture Professional Practicum
    - Sustainable Tourism Professional Practicum
- ✓ You must apply to both ACICIS and RMIT University through the respective application forms, explained in detail below.
- ✓ You must complete your Mobi registration with RMIT University to confirm academic credit and any funding eligibility (including New Colombo Plan funding).

Your points of contact:

ACICIS Contact:
- ✓ For all things ACICIS including New Colombo Plan funding: ACICIS

RMIT Contacts:
- ✓ For all ACICIS short term programs at RMIT, please visit the RMIT Connect portal

Fees and Enrolment

- ACICIS will invoice you directly for the administration and tuition fee - these cannot be deferred to HECS.
- You will enrol into fee-free course codes at RMIT - you will not pay tuition fees to RMIT for the program.
- Upon successful completion of the program, you will receive credit exemption for either:
    - ✓ ENVI1058 Environmental Work Practice and one 12 credit point University Elective, OR;
    - ✓ Two 12 credit point University Electives

New Colombo Plan Mobility Grant

There is no separate application for a $3,000 New Colombo Plan Mobility Grant – instead, you are automatically considered for a grant when you submit your program application to ACICIS. Your eligibility will be assessed in collaboration with RMIT upon your acceptance into the program.

For Bachelor of Environment and Society students only:

In order to receive a grant, you must meet the following eligibility criteria:

- ✓ Current undergraduate (Bachelor or Honours Degree) student
- ✓ Studying at an ACICIS Member University (YES! RMIT is a Member University)
- ✓ Australian citizen
- ✓ Receiving credit towards your degree for participation in this program
- ✓ Have not previously received two virtual short-term New Colombo Plan Mobility Grant*
- ✓ Not currently a citizen or permanent resident of the Republic of Indonesia
- ✓ Not previously a citizen or permanent resident of the Republic of Indonesia

*Students are only allowed to receive two virtual short-term NCP grants in addition to one short term mobility grant and one semester-long in-country mobility grant from the New Colombo Plan.

N.B. 70% of grant recipients (Australia-wide) must be between the ages of 18-28.

Application deadlines

ACICIS Program	ACICIS Deadlines	RMIT Mobi Registration Deadlines*
Professional Practicum Programs	Summer: 15 September Winter: 1 April	Summer: 15 September Winter: 1 April

*these are the latest recommended Mobi registration deadlines. As Mobi approval is a hurdle requirement for NCP eligibility (i.e. confirmed awarding of academic credit), it is recommended to register ASAP to avoid lengthy delays in the awarding of your NCP grant.

Application process

Step 1: RMIT School Approval.

- ✓ Submit a query via the RMIT Connect Portal to confirm whether you are eligible to receive credit for the program.
- ✓ If eligible, complete and submit a study plan for approval.

Step 2: Submit your application to ACICIS Study Indonesia.

For Bachelor of Environment and Society students only:

✓ While your study plan is being approved by RMIT, complete and submit the ACICIS online application for your selected program by the deadline.

✓ Students will be notified on the outcome of their application by ACICIS one month after the application deadline.

Step 3: Submit your registration to RMIT's Mobi

✓ Once you have applied to ACICIS, begin your RMIT Mobi registration for your selected program.

✓ A comprehensive guide on Mobi is available here.

Step 4: Enrol in RMIT units

✓ Once you have been accepted by ACICIS and RMIT, you will need to enrol in the appropriate courses according to your approved study plan.

✓ Information about how to do this will be provided by the Global Experience Office upon successful completion of your Mobi Application.